Protocolo Blanco 2022
Castilla Y Leon, Spain

A vibrant blend of 60% Macabeo, 40% Airén, Dominio de Eguren Protocolo Blanco has fresh aromas showing an array of fruit flavors with banana, apple and peach all noticeable. The palate is bright, fruity and silky with a perfect level of acidity to leave you refreshed. Aged in stainless steel. Drink with anything & everything!

Ch. M Semillon 2016, Bordeaux, France

Ch. M is 100% Semillon. Its color is a beautiful bright yellow. The nose is interesting with vanilla and toasted notes. Buttery with a generous mouthfeel, hints of white flowers and integrated oaky notes. This white finishes with lovely exotic fruit flavors. A delicious complement to fish, shellfish, chicken and pork dinners. Suggested cheese pairings: Brie, Gruyere, Havarti, Mozzarella & Ricotta. A 'Best Buy' white Bordeaux!

Le Salare Montepulciano d'Abruzzo DOC 2021, Italy

An Excellent Value! This still, dry red wine made by Fratelli Barba in Italy's Abruzzo is medium-to-full-bodied and silky smooth, with aromas of cherries, blackberries, black raspberries, and brambly earth that follow on the palate. It has accents of savory herbs, stone, and its well-integrated tannins add depth. Balancing acidity and a long finish make this wine incredibly delicious all on its own but even better with your favorite Italian foods. Your new 'house red', so grab a case to have on hand!

Bodegas Callia Malbec 2021, Argentina

Beautiful red fruits such as plums and cherries. The palate offers a balanced mouthfeel with flavors of redcurrant and black cherry supported by sweet, round tannins. It culminates in a long finish with notes of cloves and cinnamon. Excellent with bbq dishes, burgers, spicy Mexican food such as quesadillas or tacos, roasted pork, duck, and honey-baked ham. One sip and you'll want more!

Domaine Gayrard Braucol 2019, Gaillac, France

Braucol is a native varietal spread out in South West It is called Braucol in the Gaillac area where this wine is made organically. Fruity, generous, supple and full of wild blackcurrant notes with a touch of spice and delicious green pepper undertones. Soft tannins, good intensity and juicy fruit fill the palate through to a fruity finish. It will pair fantastically well with pizza, pasta dishes or grill favorites.
